EAPR2024 PhD Student Support

EAPR will support financially 10 PhD students to attend the 22nd Triennial Conference EAPR2024 in Oslo

The support will not exceed 800 EUR and will reimburse:

- Registration fee
- Travel and accommodation cost

Application deadline is 15 December 2023.

To apply:

1. Submit an abstract for a poster or an oral presentation, instructions here.
2. Write an application e-mail in 250 words describing why you are applying, attach a short CV and a proof of your PhD status and send it to: eapr2024@nibio.no.

Only the abstracts accepted by the Scientific Committee will be considered. The Evaluation Committee will select 10 applications on the basis of scientific excellence, with the preference for the students from countries with low GDP per capita.

Recipients of the EAPR student support will have to write a short report about their participation in the EAPR2024 by 30th November 2024. The expenses will be reimbursed after the conference based on report, proof of payment and invoices.
